Statement Of Conditions From Which You Seek Relief

I, the undersigned, duly depose and say that I am the Applicant in this matter and state as follows:

My ex-husband Jody Barr's behavior has become increasingly erratic towards me and I wish to seek a restraining order.

On Friday, Oct. 15, 2010 he emailed many Vice Pres. + Human Resources people at my job trying to get me fired. Subsequently I had to have HR change my work cell # and my office pb. # <sup>changed</sup> and he continued to try and contact me. This is not the first time he has done this, he has been permanently ejected from my employer Foxwoods after coming and stealing my car while I was working + taking my employer phone from my hands and copying my contacts in order to harass fellow employees. This was all caught on surveillance and documented by Foxwoods security and CT State Police.

He has been arrested for Domestic violence against me and even after completing family violence class he has continued to harass and threaten me. My attorney is going to file a motion for contempt in an effort to force him to sell our house, I am scared and afraid that he is going to come after me at my place of residence or find me and hurt.

Statement Concerning Temporary Custody Of Children

me. He has not given me my car back and I know he has keys to the car I am driving, he could easily come take it if he knew where I was and leave me stranded.

If he feels comfortable harassing me at work where he is permanently evicted from then there is no stopping him from harassing me when I am not at work.
